The book cover for 'MICROCOSMES' by Yann Bouvier is shown. The title is in large red letters. Below it, the subtitle reads 'L'histoire de France à taille humaine'. The cover art is a vibrant, cartoonish illustration of a winding path through various historical figures and events, including a knight, a woman in a red dress, and a man in a blue hat. The path is yellow and red, and the background is filled with small, colorful figures and symbols.
